

Tell Me the Stories of Jesus

Verse

Tell me the sto - ries of Je - - sus
First let me hear how the chil - dren
In - to the cit - y I'd fol - low

3
I love to hear; things I would ask him to tell me stood round his knee, and I shall fan - cy his bless - ing the chil - dren's band, wav - ing a branch of the palm tree

7
if he were here: scenes by the way - side,
rest - ing on me; words full of kind - ness,
high in my hand; one of his her - als,

11
tales of the sea, sto - ries of Je - sus, deeds full of grace, all in the love - light
yes, I would sing loud - est ho - san - nas,

15
tell of them to me.
"Je - - sus is sus' face.
King!"

THE TALE OF THE THREE TREES

The Tale of the Three Trees

Music by Allen Pote
Lyrics and Narration by Tom S. Long

Presented by State College Presbyterian Church LOGOS

“A Prayer for Tomorrow”
Three trees stand together on a hill.

“High on a Hill”
The three trees dream of what they would like to become.

Wealthy Lord: Miller Salerno
Mast and Sail: Ezra Blumsack
and Osanna Rice
King: Channing Behrer
The Tallest Tree: Navy Bauman

“The Chopping Song”
The three trees are cut down, one at a time.

“Trim the Branches”
The trees are taken to a carpenter’s shop. The first tree becomes a feeding box for animals. The second tree becomes a bench on a fishing boat. The third tree is tossed aside because the wood is flawed.

Soloists: Greyson Zabik,
Addie Richardson, and Navy Bauman

“The Dream of the Tree Came True”
The three trees are pleased to discover that their hopes come true in ways even better than they had imagined.
